United Insurance Brokers

Capabilities overview

As one of the leading investment destinations for international business, “United Kingdom plc” offers many opportunities for overseas businesses. Doing business in the UK is not, like elsewhere, without risk and it is essential for any organisation to have a business risk management strategy. Arranging the right insurances is a key component of this plan.

In one of the world’s largest and most complex insurance industries, UIB UK’s specialist insurance advisors will support your business and protect your UK assets and liabilities.

About UIB UK

The UK Division is a dedicated team within UIB who deliver leading-edge insurance products and risk management strategies to support our international clients for all their UK-based insurance needs.

A Diverse Range of Talent

Supporting the wide cross-section of international businesses, UIB UK is uniquely placed to support your UK operations.

With specialists in property, casualty and liability insurance risks, UIB UK offers more than just general insurance services to international clients. We ensure that you have full confidence that your UK operations are as well protected as your other international operations.

The UK Division offers distinct specialities within one division - meaning that your business gets the specialist insurance advice it needs on its UK investments from a single, UK-focused team.

“Access to a dynamic, competitive international insurance marketplace, enabling you to exploit potential differences in insurance premium costs on a global basis”

Our Client Base

Through our international client base, we have experience in dealing with all types of risks from property portfolios to professional services organisations. We currently manage insurance programmes for a wide range of UK investments, including, property investment portfolio’s manufacturing facilities, media groups and medical product distributors.

Why UIB UK

United Insurance Brokers

UIB Group is one of the largest privately-owned independent international insurance and reinsurance brokers head-quartered in London. UIB Group's team boasts over 20 nationalities. Supported by a network of local offices, and strategic business partners, UIB provide clients with the platform to access insurance and reinsurance markets globally. UIB Group clients benefit from a dedicated and exceptionally culture sensitive team of specialists who can provide global solutions supported by a personal drive and focus for which UIB has established an unrivalled reputation.

Over time the UIB Group has established and sustained strong relationships with its client base and built a strong network through its international arm, UIB International, and UIBL's own strategic offices. The result is local expertise with global capability to deliver specialist know-how, strategic risk management advice and outstanding claims management.

The founding directors, many of whom are still active in UIB, have worked together since the 1970s providing a depth of knowledge and continuity seldom seen in the insurance business today.

The accredited Lloyd's insurance broker and UIB Group's centre of excellence for specialty business is United Insurance Brokers Limited (UIBL).

The ethos of UIB, from the very beginning, has been client focused: listening carefully to clients' concerns and their requirements, striving to meet those needs and delivering the appropriate products and professional service.
